

Art History Abroad invites you to the Christmas Gap Year and Career Break Show

@

The Dukes Head
8 Lower Richmond Road, Putney, London, SW15 1JN
Friday 17th December 1pm -4pm

The Show?

An excellent opportunity for you to come and meet AHA tutors and staff and find out more about our stupendous courses in Italy. There will be a range of other leading gap year organisations attending the event and we all expect it to be an excellent and extremely worthwhile show, where you are certain to meet other future gappers with similar plans to your own.

Other Organisations?

- Africa and Asia Venture - AV place volunteers from around the globe into worthwhile gap year and volunteer projects all over the developing world.
- Base Camp - Base Camp offer ski & snowboard instructor courses in Canada and Europe that are ideal if on a gap year or career break.
- Ticket to Ride – TTR offer legendary gap year and career break courses in South Africa, Mozambique and Costa Rica combining learn to surf, charity work, travel and instructor qualifications.
- The Avenue Cookery School - Gap year cooking courses from 1 to 4 weeks.

How to get there?

Tube – Putney Bridge (then walk over the bridge and turn right)

Train – Putney Station (walk down the high street, and turn left before the bridge).

Bus – Extensive bus links from all over London (no22 from Piccadilly).

Parking – Metered parking is available nearby.
